IRLY ANNOUNCES NEW MEMBER

SURREY, BC (June 2, 2010) – The IRLY Building Centres are pleased to welcome their newest member, Brookwood Rentals Ltd. in Langley, BC.

Brookwood Rentals is owned and operated by Ed Murphy, with help from his daughter Melodie Murphy. Ed Murphy bought the 30 year old business in 1994 and moved the business to a larger location nearby. Here he expanded the operation from a one garage bay to the existing 8,000 sq. ft. facility.

Currently the business offers machinery sales and rentals, however the Murphys plan to expand the storefront and begin a hardware offering using existing storage space.

When asked why she joined IRLY, Melodie replied that she was unsure where she could find a local hardware source for her store. She attended the BSIA (Building Supply Industry Association) Westcoast Show in Kelowna, BC for ideas. “Vendors suggested we talk to IRLY. We are so happy we joined the group.”

As IRLY is an acronym for Independent Retail Lumber Yards, IRLY is always spelled in caps.
